EAGLEBANK BOWL ANNOUNCES RENEWAL BY ANDERSEN TO SERVE
AS PRESENTING SPONSOR OF RADIO BROADCAST

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The EagleBank Bowl announced today that Renewal by Andersen of the Washington, D.C. Capital Area, will serve as presenting sponsor for the Federal News Radio 1500 AM radio broadcast of this year’s game, which is being held on Tuesday, December 29th in Washington, D.C.’s RFK Stadium. The game will also be broadcast live on ESPN starting at 4:30 p.m.

"We are honored to be named as the presenting sponsor of the EagleBank Bowl benefiting The Wounded Warrior Project. Since 2007, we have supported Operation Second Chance locally through our Windows of Opportunity initiative, and our involvement with the EagleBank Bowl will provide us with the opportunity to extend the reach and support of this worthwhile organization throughout the D.C. metro area," said Tommy Chaikin, owner of the Renewal by Andersen showroom in Rockville, Maryland.

"The support this year’s game has received from the business community has been phenomenal," said Steve Beck, Executive Director of the EagleBank Bowl. "These local Renewal by Andersen businesses share a common commitment to our men and women in uniform and we are thrilled to have them aboard as presenting sponsor of our radio broadcast."

In addition to the Bowl’s support of The Wounded Warrior Project, Renewal by Andersen of the Washington, D.C. Capital Area contributes a portion of proceeds from every window sold to Operation Second Chance through their "Buy a Window. Help a Hero." campaign which helps service men and women recovering at Walter Reed Army Medical Center (WRAMC), and other VA hospitals throughout the nation. A new website dedicated to this effort, www.WindowsHelpingHeroes.org, is now available for local homeowners and businesses to learn more about Operation Second Chance and to tie the purchase of Renewal by Andersen® replacement windows to a donation.

“It’s a great feeling to know that we’ve helped in some small way to de-stress these family’s lives as much as possible. From helping with mortgage payments and buying groceries to making it possible for families to travel for visits with recovering soldiers, and even buying DVD players and Wii console games for those confined to hospital beds for months at a time, we’ll continue to do whatever we can to help these heroes move on,” added Mark Chaikin, owner of the Renewal by Andersen showroom in Fairfax, Virginia.

Cindy McGrew, Founder and President of Operation Second Chance said, “I am reminded each day just how blessed we are living in this great nation. I have seen firsthand what courage; strength, bravery and determination can overcome. It just goes to show what can be done to help rebuild these young peoples’ lives when working together with companies such as Renewal by Andersen of the Washington, D.C. Capital Area.”

The inaugural EagleBank Bowl in 2008, Wake Forest defeated the Navy Midshipmen, 29-19, before nearly 30,000 fans at RFK Stadium.

Tickets for this year’s game start at $30 and can be purchased at any Ticketmaster outlet, by calling (800) 551-7328 or at www.ticketmaster.com. For more information, please visit www.EagleBankBowl.org.

About the EagleBank Bowl

The EagleBank Bowl, the first NCAA-sanctioned postseason bowl game in Washington, D.C., has been held in the District’s historic RFK Stadium since 2008. Organized by the DC Bowl Committee, Inc., the Washington Convention and Sports Authority and title sponsor EagleBank, the EagleBank Bowl serves as a premier regional event. With first-rate participants and events, the EagleBank Bowl seeks to positively impact the regional economy and charitable partners, honor the U.S. military and solidify the nation’s capital as a leading college football destination.
