WCSA HOSTS TICKET GIVEAWAY CONTEST ON TWITTER

Followers can win free tickets to see Stone Temple Pilots and more at DC101 Chili Cook-Off

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Follow @DCSportsEnt on Twitter for an opportunity to win free tickets to the hottest rock concert and chili competition in the nation's capital! The Washington Convention and Sports Authority (WCSA) is giving away tickets to see rock legends Stone Temple Pilots, Alice in Chains and other great acts performing live at the DC101 Chili Cook-Off Saturday, May 22 on the RFK Stadium Festival Grounds. The contest runs from May 17-21.

To participate, contestants must retweet song lyrics posted on Twitter by the WCSA from 12-4 p.m. daily. Names will be selected randomly from a drawing and each day two winners will be announced no later than 6 p.m. Winning contestants will receive two (2) general admission tickets to the 2010 DC101 Chili Cook-Off.

The DC101 Chili Cook-Off is the biggest one-day rock festival nationwide and benefits the National Kidney Foundation Serving the National Capital Area. This year's event is expected to raise $1.6 million to support the Foundation's programs in research, patient services, professional and public education, and organ donation awareness.

Existing Twitter users may follow WCSA at @DCSportsEnt to participate in the contest. Additional contest guidelines can be found at www.wcsa.com.
